Summertime in Sakonnet

How cool and refreshing to a dweller in the sultry city were the vaporous winds that blew over the new-mown meadows and across the wild rose hedges that bordered the roadside. How delicious the breath of the sweet briar that floated in at night through the open window!

Providence poet Sarah Helen Whitman wrote those words in 1869 to express her delight at spending a summer in Little Compton … and luckily for us, her words still ring true, 140 years later.

This Summer 2009 edition of Community Connections highlights the many special events, community fundraisers, fun-filled fairs and circuses, art shows and auctions, fascinating exhibitions and chicken barbeques … everything that makes summer a special time in Sakonnet. Enjoy!

2009 Golf Outing – Fun was the Name of the Game

The 2009 Little Compton Golf Outing at the Sakonnet Golf Club was once again a full field of foursomes out having fun flogging. (For the uninitiated, ‘flog’ is golf spelled backwards). Uncooperative overcast skies on the morning of June 6th did not deter the 28 hardy golfers who were rewarded by beautiful sunshine long before they gathered at the “19th hole”.

Once the dust settled, the foursome of Chris Chaves, Keith Trenthon, Chris Maher and David Correia came out on top with 1st gross (66 MOC) overall. The team of Donald Backlund, Pat Murray, Greg Arnold and Tom Rogers recorded a 1st Callaway (66 MOC). On this day, everyone was a winner as this annual event raised $34,000 to support the many programs provided by the Little Compton Community Center.

Thanks to all of the participants and generous sponsors of this year’s tournament, not to mention the time and energy donated by a dedicated team of tireless volunteers. Special thanks to the Sakonnet Golf Club and Club Pro Bill Curtin for providing a world-class venue which had golfers raving about its finely manicured greens with true roll. See you next year on the links!

Seussical’–A Sold-out Smash!

The LCCC Children’s Theatre wowed ‘em once again with their presentation of Seussical Jr., selling out all performances over the weekend of May 15th to 17th.

Under the artful and professional guidance of Angela Miranda, the Seussical cast received high praise from theatre-goers. Angela offered her impressions, stating, “I am very proud of the cast, they all grew so much; as a team as well as individually. They learned a lot about the value of preparation and commitment.”

Parents, families, teachers and the entire community should be justifiably proud of the accomplishments of these young performers, and their encouragement and support is an equally important component in these achievements.

As for the next performance of the LCCC Children’s Theatre, Director Miranda is still undecided, offering only, “I’m not sure which direction we will go in just yet but given the amount of tremendous talent in LC as well as the wonderfully supportive parents it promises to be a ‘must see’. Stay tuned!

There’s cash in those receipts!

A reminder to both year-round residents and summer friends – be sure to save your Lees Market cash register receipts. Lees Market of Westport donates 1% of the total of receipts turned in by Little Compton Community Center to help support the Center’s activities. Put ‘em in a box, stuff ‘em in an envelope, stash ‘em in a desk … just don’t forget to turn them in!

Drop-off boxes are available at the LCCC on the left-hand front staircase or at the front desk. Those receipts add up to real money … thanks to the continued support and generosity of Lees Market.
An Old-Fashioned, Family Fun Weekend – July 31st to August 2nd

An Olde Tyne Circus, Fireworks, BBQ Chicken & Antiques! Little Compton is the place to be on the weekend of July 31st to August 2nd as the town will be transformed into a hub of family fun and community activity.

The time-honored 54th annual Chicken Barbecue, to benefit the Village Improvement Society, will take place at Veterans Field on Saturday, August 1st. Chicken dinners will be available starting at Noon or when the "chef" announces they are ready. The traditional dinner consists of ½ BBQ chicken, potato salad, coleslaw, ear of corn, roll and butter, watermelon and soft drink.

Anyone and everyone are invited to contribute a themed 'Pandora's Box' container—be it a box, basket, tub—use your own imagination. To sign-up or for more information, please call the VIS at 635-4560 or email: tatanora@cox.net.

Kids of all ages will be thrilled when Vidbel's Olde Tyne Circus returns to Little Compton on August 1st and 2nd. Sponsored by the Little Compton Volunteer Fire Department, there will be four performances under the Big-Top – Saturday (8/1) at 4 PM and 6:30 PM and Sunday (8/2) at 2 PM and 4:30 PM.

Tickets will be on sale at many locations in Little Compton as well as at the Community Center during normal office hours (9 to 3). For more information, contact Jack Crook at 635-0003 or email: phoneguy84@hotmail.com.

Preserve Rhode Island will again sponsor the always-popular Little Compton Antiques Festival at Sakonnet Vineyards. Featuring fifty dealers from across the Northeast, the show will run from 10 AM to 5 PM. For Preview tickets or more info, please call: 401-273-5550.

'Vegetable Pickers’ Needed for LC Food Bank

Summer is here and volunteers are needed to pick vegetables at a local farm for the Little Compton Food Bank … not to mention a few energetic ‘weed pickers’ too.

This is a great family fun activity or a nice way to spend an afternoon with a few friends … you’ll get some fresh air, exercise and the wonderful feeling that comes from helping your neighbors. Community Service hours will be given for high school, middle school students or anyone else who needs them.

Thanks in advance to those volunteers who have already volunteered—you will be contacted as soon as your ‘picking skills’ are needed.

A very special ‘thank you’ to Mr. Emery Pineo for his generosity in planting an extra field of crops for the Food Bank. The fields are already plowed and planted and, if Mother Nature cooperates, there should be an abundance harvest of vegetables this growing season.

Please call Pat at 635-4632 or Sue at 635-2722 if you can lend us a hand. If we harvest more than we can use, the bounty will be shared with other local food kitchens.
